Summer, 1983

Dear Sabra Campers and Staff:

It is with great pleasure that we present our 1983 edition of the Camp Sabra Yearbook. Our special thanks go to Jon Rubin, Marita Raymond and Sherri Waldman for a job well done.

As you look through this book we hope your fond memories of camp will be remembered for many years to come. The friends we have made, the trips we took and that special feeling only Camp Sabra can give to you.

REMEMBER the fun you've had here,
REMEMBER when you're away,
REMEMBER the friends you've made here,
And don't forget to come back some day.

REMEMBER beside the campfire,
The rippling water blue,
For you all belong to Sabra,
And Sabra belongs to you.

Shalom,

Bob

I miss your thoughts
I miss your words
I miss your actions
but knowing that we share our feelings
even though apart
it is as though you are with me now.

If you do not understand
my silence --
You will not understand
my words.

ALWAYS HAVE A DREAM

Forget about the days
when it's been cloudy,
but don't forget your hours in the sun ...

Forget about the times
you've been defeated,
but don't forget
the victories you've won.
Forget about mistakes
that you can't change now
but don't forget
the lessons that you've learned ...

Forget about misfortunes
you've encountered,
but don't forget the times
your luck has turned.

when you've been lonely,
but don't forget
the friendly smile you've seen ...

Forget about the plans
that didn't seem to work out right,
but don't forget
to always have a dream.

Amanda Bradley

Since we live
so far from each other
we must try extra hard to keep in touch with each other I wish you would write or call more often but I know that you get so involved
with everyday events that there's never enough time I forgive you for this because I know that I am in your thoughts as you are in mine
I hope that my friendship with you
is as important as your friendship
is to me.

The world is composed of givers and takers ...
The takers may eat better,
but the givers sleep better.

SAYING GOODBY

Tears ...
Leaving the familiar
saving goodbye
to family, friends
Afraid to go away
to strange staff members,
campers yet unknown.
A new home called Camp Sabra ...
Living in unairconditioned cabins,
Eating camp food,
Taking cold showers.
Tears ...
Leaving the familiar
waving goodbye
to the great friends I've made
To my wonderful campers not wanting to go home
to an airconditioned house,
Homemade food,
Warm showers.
More tears ...
Wishing, wishing, wishing that I could stay FOREVER!

In the midst of winter;
I finally learned what there was within me ...
An invincible summer.

... Camus

Don't walk in front of me ... I may not follow, Don't walk behind me ... I may not lead;
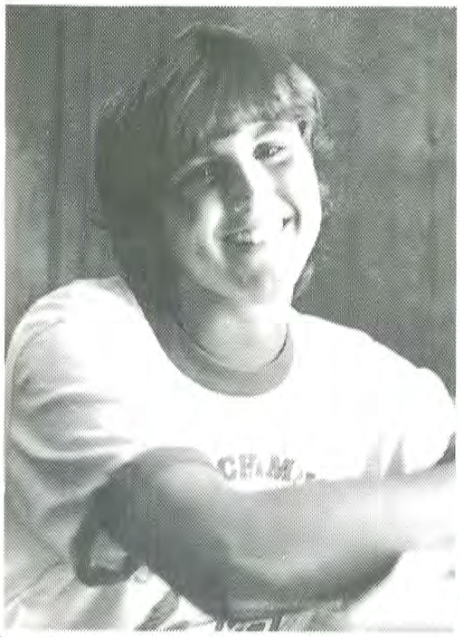
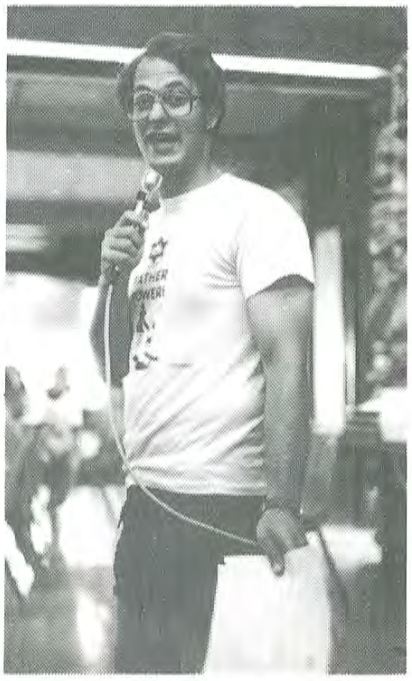
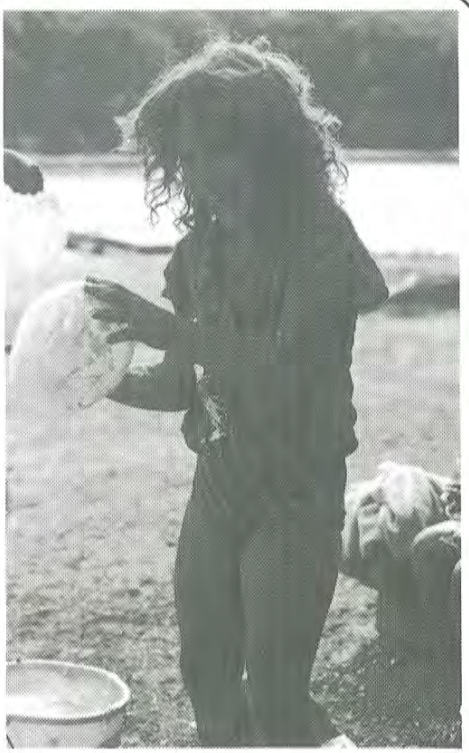
Just walk beside me and be my friend.

... Camus







Though we don't see each other very much Nor do we write to each other very much Nor do we phone each other very much
I always know that at any time, I could call, write or see you and you would understand everything I am saying and everything that I am thinking Our friendship does not depend on being together
It is deeper than that.
Our closeness is something inside of us that is always there ready to be shared with each other whenever the need arises.
It is such a comfortable and warm feeling to know that we have such a lifetime
FRIENDSHIP!

If you love something let it go.
If it comes back to you keep it.
If it doesn't ... It was never yours.
