

Camp Sabra Scholarships, Incentives, Discounts and Grants

The Camp Sabra experience is life-changing for our campers, and we want to help every camper who wants to attend, attend! Camp Sabra and the St. Louis Jewish Community Center offer a variety of ways to save money on Camp in order to make sure that this opportunity is available to as many campers as possible.

Host a House Party!

What do you get for hosting a House Party?

- $250 tuition credit for hosting
- $100 off your camper's tuition for EACH new camper who registers for and attends Camp Sabra 2016 because of your House Party (no limit!)

What do you have to do?

- Arrange a date that works for your family (and your prospective families) for a Camp Sabra representative to come to your home (or an alternative venue) to talk about Camp
- Contact prospective families (friends, family members, co-workers, etc.) and invite them to the event
- Be willing to accommodate other families recruited by Camp Sabra staff (space permitting)
- Provide snacks or pizza (you will be reimbursed for this)

Need-Based Scholarships

The St. Louis J has need-based scholarships available. The application can be found at: www.jccstl.com/memberships/scholarships
For more information about need-based scholarships, please contact Sally Lang (slang@jccstl.org, 314-442-3241).

You can also reach out to your local JCC, synagogue and Jewish Federation about funds available for camp experiences.

One Happy Camper

One Happy Camper is a $700 or $1,000 incentive grant from the Foundation for Jewish Camp for first-time campers. Eligibility requirements differ from city to city. To find out about your eligibility and apply, go to <http://www.jewishcamp.org/happy-camper-eligibility>

Refer a New Camper

When you refer a new camper who signs up for Camp Sabra, you receive $100 off your camper's tuition. Again, no limit!

Our Staff is here to help! To learn more about our scholarships, incentives, discounts and grants, please contact Assistant Camp Director Kim Sloan (314-442-3151, ksloan@jccstl.org).
